HUMAN RESOURCES DIRECTORATE

The directorate is responsible for human resources (HR) matters, including strategy, governance, policies, and services for staff, retirees and their dependents. The directorate develops HR policies and delivers HR services. Its areas of activity include typical HR tasks, such as the definition and administration of compensations and benefits, as well as recruiting. Playing the role of HR business partner, it supports the positive evolution of the organisation, ensuring people development, diversity, inclusion, empowerment, and overall employee engagement. It also oversees statutory areas such as employee relations and the provision of health insurance and medical benefits.

CHIEF FINANCIAL CONTROLLER DIRECTORATE

The directorate is mainly responsible for informing internal and external stakeholders about the Bank's financial position, results and performance. It has to ensure the integrity, completeness and accuracy of the Bank's financial statements and compliance with the applicable accounting standards and best practices. In 2016, the directorate established the Internal Controls and Assertion Division, which aims to strengthen the Bank's second line of defence and provides a common platform to assess and report on the EIB's control risks.
